

Malvern Artists' Society
Presents
an exhibition of paintings by Toni Bucknell and Rob (Sam) Sneddon

Toni's paintings are original impressions of landscapes from travels in Australia and overseas. Included are works which draw on the love of music. Toni has been referred to in several publications including Artists and Galleries of Australia.

Included in Rob's exhibition of oil paintings are recent works inspired by Australian urban and coastal scenes, together with European images and social commentary. He has exhibited widely and paintings have featured in Australian art publications.

Open Thursday 7th - Sunday 10th December
